Germans and the German Language in Israel

Is German spoken in Israel? Who speaks German in Israel? Do they teach or learn German in Israel? Who established German Colonies in Jerusalem and Haifa and why? Who are Yekkes? And what was the 'war of the languages' in 1913 at the Technion, the Israel Institute of Technology, about? These and other questions will be answered in the lecture.

The focus of the lecture is on language policy regarding languages and in particular German in Israel, the role of German as an additional language and the methods of its teaching.

Alle Interessierten sind herzlich eingeladen.
